PINOY BOOMER LAUNCHES BETA SITE FOR A PINOY NETWORKING SITE

Chantilly, Virginia – Pinoy Boomer (PB) is pleased to announce the launching of a beta site Pinoyboomer.net, a global online Pinoy Boomer Village. Anyone who joined during the beta phase which starts May 9, 2010 to June 14, 2010, will be included in PB's Circle of Friends. In appreciation for joining early, you will hear for free Imelda Roberts' original Pilipino music, Inang Mahal and Pinoy Boomer.

PB is pleased to offer this free site for Pinoys all around the world to convene in one place though the Pinoy Boomer Village, an online community for Pinoys worldwide. The site offers several useful tools including comprehensive links to news in both video and online/print media, Video/audio chat, a video library of "First Filipinos," a free service for nonprofit and professional organizations to expand their outreach and networking for free, and many other features that will help to connect easily with Pinoys around the world in a safe online environment.

Pinoy Boomer Village is a free service to the Filipino community. There is no fee for registering in this site or would you be charged membership in the future. Your private information will be used for this purpose only and we do not sell data to anyone.

Should you be interested in helping us in this volunteer effort, be with us in this ground floor opportunity to take the site to a world-class e-village for Pinoys by Pinoys.
